The next term of the Bloomsburg State Normal School will begin Tuesday January 3d, 1882. This school is fast gaining ground. Each year the classes are larger.

Nearly all the fine Christmas printing sent out by our merchants was done at this office. We are prepared to do better and finer work than any other office in the county.

Christopher Little of Pottsville has been appointed District Deputy Grand Master, free and accepted Masons, for Schuylkill and Columbia counties.

The annual meeting of the Gospel Temperance Union will be held in the Lutheran church on Friday evening at 7 o'clock. A sermon will be preached by Rev. Mr. Henshy and officers will be elected to serve for the ensuing year.

The jury wheel has been filled for the coming year, five hundred names having been placed therein. The jurors for February term have been drawn, and Glasco Cameron, a very respectable colored man is on the Grand Jury.

Speculative life insurance business seems to have run its course. Those who have policies in such companies will show their wisdom by not paying any more assessments, as the chances are that the more they pay the more they will lose.

Mr. W. H. Smith, late editor of the Milton Argus lost a child with small-pox Sunday. Mr. Smith has a slight attack of the same disease. As yet the dread scourge is confined to the house of Mr. Smith, but the inhabitants of Milton are living in great dread.

Executors' and administrators' account books, containing full instructions how to settle an estate, receipts, &c., for sale at this office. These are the most convenient books of the kind ever printed, and they are in use all over the State. t-f.

The County Commissioners have appointed William L. Manning of Jackson as the Mercantile Appraiser for the coming year. This is an excellent selection and the duties of the office will be thoroughly and satisfactorily performed. Mr. Manning has served the people before in the capacity of county auditor, and did it very acceptably.

THERE IS NOTHING LIKE IT.
The failing powers of digestion, assimilation, secretion and excretion, are restored to permanent health, strength and activity, by using Brown's Iron Bitters—a true tonic! a perfect strengthener! a sure reviver.

Bessie Alleman, a little granddaughter of Stephen Knorr, died on Tuesday night, of croup, having been sick only since Sunday night. She was a bright and interesting child, and her happy voice will be greatly missed in the household. The funeral took place on Thursday.

The rains have swelled the streams almost to torrents. The river is over the road in some places, and the creek also has overflown its banks. Travel has been stopped between Kingston and Wilkes-Barre. It is said that the weather now is very much like that of 1875, the year so many bridges were carried away. It is to be hoped that the comparison will not hold strictly true.

No more small pox in Orangeville, but it has left me with a large stock of Fall, Winter and Millinery Goods on hand, which I intend to sell at ten per cent less than they can be purchased for anywhere else in the county, in order not to carry them over. So bring in your cash and produce and secure the greatest bargains of your life.

"Florinel."
This troupe comes here with the brightest recommendation to public favor. The Scranton Republican, a paper that never hesitates to denounce actors that deserve it, speaks very highly of Miss Julia A. Hunt, and of the play. It is said to be first class in every respect, and the managers who have gone to unusual expense and trouble in bringing it here should be rewarded by a full house.

The Minnie Wallace Combination played to a small house on Tuesday night. The play has but little in it, and if it is Joaquin Miller's best, then deliver us from his worst. Miss Wallace as "Carrots" sustained her part well; the rest of the company were no more than ordinary. Mr. Dobson did not play on the banjo as announced on the bills, and thereby caused some disappointment, as he is said to be one of the best performers on that instrument in the world.

The fifteenth annual meeting of the Pennsylvania State Temperance Union, for the election of officers and other business, will open at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, at Harrisburg on Wednesday, January 18th, 1882. The Convention will be held in the Hall of the House of Representatives, at Harrisburg on January 19th and 20th, commencing at 9 a. m., of Thursday. Delegates are invited from Associations, Churches and Sabbath Schools. Excursion tickets—2 cents a mile each way—may be had on application to Rev D. C. Babcock, 46 North 11th St. Phila.

One of the most enjoyable occasion of the season was the sociable given by the Winona Fire Company on Thursday evening of last week in their hall. About twenty couples were present. The music was furnished by Prof. Ruhe's Orchestra of Allentown, and it can safely be said that it was by far the best that has ever been brought here. The full orchestra consists of twenty pieces, but only four came up, Prof. Ruhe leading with the violin, the other instruments being a piano, cornet and clarionet. The style of music was all first class, and during the evening a number of concert pieces were performed, among them, the overture to "Poet and Peasant." The piano used was from the wareroom of Mrs. Nuss. Messrs. S. F. Peacock, A. A. Clark and Clarence Fitzpatrick were the active parties in getting up the dance, and to them all who participated are indebted for a very pleasant evening

Christmas at the Churches.

Appropriate Christmas services were held in most of the places of worship on Sunday. The Episcopal, Methodist, Lutheran and Reformed churches were trimmed with evergreen. The Presbyterian and Lutheran Sunday schools had their celebration on Saturday night, the Reformed and Baptist on Sunday evening, the Methodist on Monday night, and the Episcopal on Tuesday. Christmas carols and distribution of gifts were the principal exercises.

Miss Laura Jones, youngest daughter of John Jones, living in East Bloomsburg, died of typhoid fever at her home, early on Monday morning. She was about 16 years of age, and well thought of by all who knew her. To her religious duties she was very much devoted, was always found in her Sabbath school class and showed a great desire to learn all possible. In her school duties she was not wanting in the least but exhibited great talents, and stood high among her classmates. The funeral took place at two o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, attended by a large number of friends. Revs. F. P. Manhart and D. J. Waller, Jr., delivered addresses. Interred in Rosemont Cemetery.

Mr. Charles S. Pedrick, a brakeman on the P. & R. R. R. was killed at the Summit on Tuesday night last. It appears that he had cut the engine loose from the train, in order to allow it to be turned, by pulling the tank-coupling pin, and was walking backwards in front of the cars trying to loosen the tank link which was fast to the head car, when the train collided with the engine, which had been stopped by the engineer, to hold them from passing the switch, crushing him so badly that he died in a few moments. The deceased was a second cousin to Mr. Peter Baldy, of this place, and a nephew to Mr. Charles Fornwald, of Bloomsburg, his nearest relatives, his parents being dead.—Item.

In order to keep our promise to our readers we are almost daily refusing advertisements of patent medicines. One agent lately offered us 800 copies of a book called "Things worth knowing" or something of the sort, for a quarter of a column advertisement, and a lot of reading notices, and said the books would be just the thing for a holiday gift to subscribers, but as the subscribers would thereby be deprived of that much reading matter weekly, amounting to more in the course of a year than all the matter in the book, we declined as it would not be just the thing to give our patrons presents and then make them pay for them. All sorts of devices are used by these patent medicine men to get their wares advertised.

News Items.

Engineer Melville has telegraphed to the American Legation at St. Petersburg that the Jeannette was surrounded and crushed by ice on the 23d of June, in latitude 77 north, and longitude 157 east. The crew left the vessel in three boats. About fifty miles from the mouth of the Jena they were separated by violent winds and thick fogs. Boat No. 3, commanded by Engineer Melville, arrived on the 29th of September at the eastern mouth of the river Jena, where it was stopped by blocks of ice, near the village of Bolenenga, inhabited by idolaters. Boat No. 1 reached the same spot. The occupants of these boats state that Lieutenant Delong and Dr. Ambler, with twelve others, landed at the northern mouth of the Jena, and are in a fearful condition, suffering from frost bitten limbs. A party of the inhabitants of Bolenenga started immediately for their assistance. Nothing is known of Boat No. 2.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—Last Saturday afternoon, about 3 o'clock, the still in E. J. Beyer's distillery exploded. The cause of the explosion is not known but it is supposed that the pipes were clogged so as to interrupt the passage of steam from one part of the still to the other. Mr. W. B. Taylor U. S. store keeper and gauger was in the building at the time, and, as blinded by the steam he endeavored to make his way out, he stumbled and fell into the ash pit into which had flowed the scalding liquid from the bursting still. He was terribly scalded but lingered in agony until 2 o'clock on last Sunday morning when he died. No other person was hurt and no damage was done to the building. The distillery is in Valley Township about 4½ miles from Danville. Mr. Taylor was an estimable young man and had recently been admitted to the Montour county bar.—Montour American.

THE BUSINESS MAN'S BEST FRIEND.

Mr. C. L. Oudeslays, a leading importer of Baltimore, has stated that nothing has done his dyspepsia, indigestion, &c., so much good as that most wonderful of all tonic and reviving medicines Brown's Iron Bitters. Just think of it; at a supper the other night, although a dhronic dyspeptic, he says he ate, at 12 o'clock, fried oysters, chicken salad, and ice cream, after which taking a dose of Iron Bitters, he never spent a more pleasant night, with no dyspeptic symptoms in the morning.

The proceedings in the Guiteau trial the past week have been but a repetition of former ones, only that the prisoner has been more abusive and demonstrative if possible. Why an American Judge should permit such conduct on the part of a prisoner at the bar is incomprehensible. The opinion that the assassin will be hanged is fast gaining ground, the defence of insanity having been badly damaged by the prosecution. The nation will breathe more freely when this farce closes. The people have had quite enough of it.

A slight fire was caused in Philadelphia recently by the contract of the wires of the Brush electric light company with the telephone wires. The councils are alarmed and it is proposed to have the wires by which Chestnut street is now illuminated removed. It is probable that the electric wires will be run under ground.
